The Professional Development Advisory Council (PDAC) will sponsor a four day hands-on workshop for full-time faculty who will have the opportunity to work with Professors Gwen Cohen-Brown and Paul King and Janet Liou-Mark to create their Teaching Portfolios. City Tech’s Teaching Portfolio Workshop- based on the Peter Seldin model- is a dynamic, personal and goal-setting opportunity to challenge assumptions, provide a framework for reflection, and offer guidance about the process of teaching and learning in a collegial setting.

The January workshop will conclude with faculty presenting their personalized Teaching Portfolios on Monday, June 10, 2011.

The workshop is limited to 12 participants from across the college.

Workshop Highlights:
- Work hands-on with faculty mentors
- Reflect on teaching philosophies
- Articulate how teaching in your discipline fosters concepts of general education
- Organize teaching materials and assessment of teaching
- Examine several teaching portfolios
- Receive feedback from colleagues
