

THE ENGLISH DEPARTMENT
PRESENTS

An Evening With
Robert Ostrom
(Poetry Reading)

The Youngest Butcher
in Illinois

The dark, passionate, miniature universe Ostrom has composed is seductive and whimsical. This is a new voice—edgy, stricken with attentiveness, soft-spoken, numinous. Take him at his word.

—Lucie Brock-Broido

Things past tumble back, thoughts gather thoughts: dreadnaught, thickset, a roman candle. It is a bedroom that wants a southern addition; it swelters and finds license.
