

WORKS IN THE WORKS: The Humanities Department
presents..... A Talk by Zhijian Qian

Focusing on recent works by Chinese-American artists in New York City, this talk examines how a particular community of immigrant artists deal with such issues as cultural identity and boundaries, in-betweenness and hybridity in a transnational and multicultural environment.

1:00pm, Tuesday December 9, 2014, in A631.

Faculty and students are invited.

