

CUNY Food Talks III: Bringing Change to the Table

Theme: Institutionalizing sustainable food at CUNY, identifying challenges of teaching food and developing solutions

Moderator: Mark Hellermann, NYC College of Technology

Location:

New York City College of Technology
Namm Bldg. Room A 632
300 Jay Street Brooklyn 11201

Date: Friday, May 1, 2015

Agenda:

9:30am-10:00am: Welcome and open networking (light breakfast and coffee will be served)

10:00am-10:15am: Overview of themes and suggested next steps from last meeting

10:15am-11:00am: Breakout sessions

Attendees will break into groups based on emerging themes from our last meeting. Groups will be given note paper/chart paper to discuss the most pressing issues related to that topic. Each group will propose at least one action or project to the group- they can recruit participants.

Projects with enough support will get the green light!

- Pedagogy/teaching SUSTAINABLE food
- Campus food
- Food insecurity
- Food system careers and jobs/workforce development
- Food handling- from gardening to composting (and administrative hurdles)

11:00am-11:30am: Sharing breakout work

11:30am-11:45am: Next steps

12:00pm-1:30pm: Lunch
