Getting Started (10:00-10:30AM) Ready to get started using the OpenLab? This workshop introduces you to some of the exciting features of the OpenLab, sign up, create your OpenLab profile, and set up a course site! All levels of OpenLab experience are welcome!

Creating Your Course Site (10:30-11:30AM) Are you interested in using the OpenLab to teach your course? In this workshop we'll go from sign-up to course site creation and give you beginning tips for how communicate with your students on the OpenLab. Please note: An OpenLab account is required!

Working with Your Students (12:30-2:00PM) Do you want to create online interaction with your students and also be able to assess it within the OpenLab? This workshop shares useful OpenLab tools for blogging and assessing student work and helps you to brainstorm assignment design for your OpenLab course. Please note: An OpenLab account is required!

Open Hour on the OpenLab (2:10-4:10PM) Ready to get hands-on experience on the OpenLab with face-to-face help available for support? Bring your ideas and questions, and join the OpenLab team for our Open Hour, a great opportunity to find out more about getting started with the OpenLab, but also a perfect time to ask your more advanced questions about using the OpenLab for your courses, clubs, projects, and portfolios. All experience levels are welcome!
