

THE LEGACY OF STORYTELLING: CELEBRATING

50

YEARS OF AFRICAN AMERICAN STUDIES

THE LIFE OF ZORA NEALE HURSTON: A CURATED EXHIBIT

This curated exhibit includes archival images and footage of Zora Neale Hurston, whose work as an anthropologist, novelist, essayist, and folklorist highlights the unique stories of the Africana world. Opening ceremony on February 5th at 1pm.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 5 – 28, 2019

Ursula C. Schwerin Library at City Tech
Library Building, 4th Floor (view building hours)
300 Jay Street, Brooklyn

NATIONAL AFRICAN AMERICAN READ-IN

City Tech students, faculty, and staff read excerpts from classic and contemporary Africana texts with special recognition of W. E. B. DuBois and Audre Lorde. Refreshments to follow.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 2019

10:00am – 11:30am
City Tech Academic Complex, Room A105
285 Jay Street, Brooklyn

KEYNOTE EVENT

T.R. Simon, author of the Edgar Award–nominated children's book Zora and Me: The Cursed Ground, and musician/composer Khuent Rose participate in a community conversation about storytelling in Africana communities. The event also includes student presentations, a musical selection by Rose on the steel pan, a book signing by Simon, and a reception.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 2019

2:30pm – 5:00pm
City Tech Academic Complex, Auditorium
285 Jay Street, Brooklyn

The African American Studies Department is proud to have as its co-sponsors: The Office of the President, The City Tech Library, and Faculty Commons. Additional support offered by the Dean's Office of the School of Arts & Sciences, Black Male Initiative, Black Women's Networking Committee, and the Student Government Association.

All events are free and open to CUNY students, faculty, and staff and the general public. ID cards must be shown to enter all City Tech venues.*