

THE AFRICAN AMERICAN STUDIES DEPARTMENT at CITYTECH

PRESENTS

WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH

*THE LEGACY OF STORYTELLING:
CELEBRATING 50 YEARS OF AFRICAN AMERICAN STUDIES*

SYDNIE L. MOSLEY DANCES (SLMDANCES)

Wednesday, March 27, 2019
City Tech Academic Complex
285 Jay Street, Room A209
2:30 PM – 4:30 PM

SLMDances is an all-women, New York City-based contemporary dance company that works in communities to organize for gender and racial justice through experiential dance performance. SLMDances will perform excerpts from their repertoire and lead a movement workshop with the City Tech community. Refreshments to follow.

The African American Studies Department is pleased to have as its co-sponsors: The Office of the President and The Dean's Office of the School of Arts & Sciences. Additional support offered by the Black Women's Networking Committee.