

CUNY Institute for Health Equity (CIHE) Speaker Series for:

Hispanic Heritage Month

CIHE is committed to promoting diversity and skills development among CUNY students and alumni in an environment that fosters wellness, inclusion and belonging. In honor of Hispanic Heritage Month, the CIHE Speaker Series will highlight scientists, scholars, and leaders from a Hispanic or Latino background at the forefront of research, practice, and key organizations in the US.

Tuesday, Sept. 28 | 11:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m. Health, Health Care, Health Disparities Among Latinx Populations

Panel Chaired by:

Dr. Judith Aponte and Dr. Maria Isabel Roldós

Register: tinyurl.com/CIHE-Health

Tuesday, Oct. 12 | 11:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m. Día de la Raza Latinx Scholars and Research

Panel Chaired by:

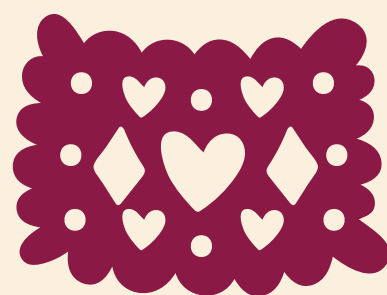

President Fernando Delgado and Dr. Juan Delacruz

Register: tinyurl.com/CIHE-Scholars

Celebrate Latin and Hispanic Culture and Heritage

Join activities organized by the CUNY Mexican Studies Institute at the Feria Internacional del Libro (New York City International Book Fair).

lehman.edu/HispanicHeritageMonth

Endorsed by:

