Teaching Matters

Special Series on Generative AI

CUNY | INNOVATIVE TEACHING ACADEMY

Friday, September 29, 2023 @11AM - 12PM

What is AI and What Can it Do? (Click here to register)

Led by: Andrea Fabrizio (Hostos), Jack Kenigsberg (Hunter), Ruru Rusmin (SPS)
- What is Generative AI and what can it do?
- Prevalent concerns about AI in educational settings
- Possible positive impacts of AI

Friday, October 27, 2023 @11AM - 12PM

AI in the Classroom (Click here to register)

Led by: Mohammad Azhar (BMCC), Jeremy Caplan (J-School), Roderick Snipes (BMCC)
- Using AI to increase student engagement (and reduce plagiarism)
- Improving productivity to develop instructional content
- Integrating AI into assessment

Friday, November 17, 2023 @11AM - 12PM

Bias, Accuracy, and Ethical Issues of AI (Click here to register)

Led by: Matt Gold (GC), Carlos Guevara (Hostos), Olena Zhadko (Lehman)
- AI's limitations and flaws
- AI policies in your syllabi
- Improving our and students' AI literacy in an ever-changing landscape